Miss M. E. Nash,
Sandon, E.C.

Dear Miss Nash:

I have forwarded your parcel of clothing to the Belgian Relief Headquarters and I have asked them to acknowledge its receipt to you. Their address is 94 Bay Street, Toronto.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Professor W. A. Neilson,
Department of English,
Harvard University.

My dear Neilson:

Many thanks for your letter. I am glad to have the names that you suggest. One of them at least I know quite well, that is Garnet Sedgwick. He has always been a brilliant fellow. We are, however, in communication with a man who may be suitable for us, Purvis, an Edinburgh graduate who is now in South Africa.

I should be delighted to see J. C. Smith here, but at present we have not the money to create a big enough position for him, and he might feel disappointed if he were to come at his time of life to this new environment.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Sir:

I send you herewith an advertisement with reference to the Organ Recital of January 25th. Will you be good enough to insert it in your issue of January 24th, in the same style as a similar advertisement appeared on January 10th.

Owing to the absence of my Secretary through domestic bereavement it is impossible to send you the ordinary form which accompanies such advertisements, and I would ask you to make the charge for this item as is customary, on the understanding that the proper form be sent to you subsequently.

Yours sincerely,

President,

My Dear President:-

I have yours of the 3rd inst.

As you are aware, certain people are called upon to subscribe for nearly everything that is being done in a charitable, benevolent or patriotic way; otherwise I would have been pleased to send you a larger cheque than I now enclose.

With best wishes for your good work.

Yours very truly,

Dear President Falemer:—

On behalf of the N.S.
A.S. Assoc<sup>n</sup>— I am writing in the hope that you may be able to address the Provincial Convention on Thursday <sup>evening</sup> Oct. 28th. The Subject suggested was "Educational Evangelism", a very vital one, and one which I know you are specially fitted to handle. It happens, too, to be the general subject of our own Board's program. (I mean Presbyterian.)
It is expected that there will be some 300 delegates present from all over the province, full denominations, beside the City's contribution to the size and importance of the audience.

I am not assuming to urge you to take this part. I know you will be willing to assist in such a worthy cause if circumstances permit.

I myself am delighted that I shall have the privilege of again seeing and hearing
you at the opening of the College.

Yours very sincerely

W. McChesney

P.S. If you can assist at the Provincial Convention and do prefer another subject, that will be quite acceptable to the Committee in charge.

My dear Mr. Nicholson:

I am sorry that I shall be unable to take part in the Nova Scotia Sunday School Association, but I am to be in Nova Scotia for three or four days and I have already promised three addresses. It is doubtful whether I can undertake more than these three. Since promising to go to Nova Scotia I have been laid aside for a few days with an illness, which means that I must be on my guard against overexertion for some time. I hope however to be able to make my visit to Nova Scotia and to be none the worse of it.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. President,

I have been instructed by the Central Liberal-Conservative Association of Toronto, to express to you their earnest wish to have you make a short address at the Patriotic Meeting to be held in the Arena Gardens on Monday 27th inst., at which Sir Robert L. Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, will be present. I endeavored to see you personally today, but learned that you are indisposed. However, I trust that you will be yourself in a day and that you will see your way clear to comply with this wish.

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Morris:

I appreciate the honour of being asked to speak at the meeting to be held in the arena on Monday night in honour of Sir Robert Borden, and I shall be glad to do so if I am well enough. The Doctor says that I may be up and around on Sunday, and in these circumstances I feel that I may at least tentatively accept your invitation.

I will tell you how to get there on Monday morning if I am not able to go.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir:-

It will oblige us very much if you and the Members of the Board of the University of Toronto will grant us, as in past years, the use of one of the rooms of the University for our Theory Examinations. These Examinations are being arranged for the following days: Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday, June 1st., 2nd., 3rd. and 5th.

Hoping for a favorable reply,

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Mr. O'Brien:

The Hart House will not be ready for occupancy for a long time yet and no final allocation has been made or will be made for some time with regard to the various rooms. They will be distributed by the various faculties, but when we are ready to make the allocation it will be through the aid of a representative committee of the House and the Board of Governors.

I feel sure, however, that the House itself will be able to get the use of a room though I should not like to say that it would be an exclusive use. That is a matter that will have to be determined when we finally make our allocations.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

My dear Principal Oliver:

I have read with a great deal of interest and admiration your address on the educational situation in Saskatchewan. It should be widely spread. I have nowhere seen such a well-informed and judicious treatment of the question. Certainly the situation is serious. We do not want the present condition of the United States to be repeated in our West, and on the other hand we do not want to get the reputation of acting as the Prussians have done in Poland and Alsace-Lorraine.

Yours sincerely,

President.

I hope that you will find satisfaction in the new work that you have undertaken.

To President R.A. Falconer
University of Toronto.

Dear Sir.

I enclose to you herewith a letter you wrote to me in answer to my request. That I be allowed my thesis in final U.C. Examination.
As I stated I have been engaged in military affairs ever since the war started & enlisted for overseas service on Jan 7th.

The 35th Bn expect to proceed overseas
the beginning of next month & if the matter could be settled before then I would be very much obliged. I have heard nothing about the matter either one way or the other since writing to you.
Yours very truly -

Dear Mr. Outerbridge:

I have consulted the Registrar with regard to your request that you be granted your supplemental examination for your final LL.B. There is another of our students who is asking for a very similar privilege which will be dealt with by the Senate's Committee as soon as possible. I feel sure that the Senate will deal generously with you though the matter is not in my own jurisdiction.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Major Outerbridge:

I have spoken to Mr. Erebner about action to be taken in regard to your final I.L.R. examination. He tells me that at the end of last session there was such a rush of matters that it was not attended to, but it is to be brought up very soon along with one or two other similar cases. I hope that we may be able to get the matter dealt with soon.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
